IN THE SOCIAL WORLD.

A LONG LIST OF WEDDINGS, PAST AND TO COME.

PREPARATIONS FOR WINTER WORK IN THE LINE OF CHARITY AND PLEASURE-NOTES FROM THE CLUBS.

There was a large number of guests present mi on Wednesday evening, in the Pouch Mansion, of Miss Adeline Weeber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Weeber, of No. 89 North Oxford-et., and R. Torbert Brook. The Rev. Dr. J. O. Wilon, of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal Church, inted, assisted by the Rev. E. E. Knapp, of the Bridge Street Baptist Church. Miss Amelia Wright, Bridge Street Baptist Church. Miss Amelia Wright, niece of the bridesroom, was flower-girl, and Miss finnie Potter was maid of honor. The bridesmaids ere Miss Lillian Wright, also a niece of the bridesroom, and Miss Grace Weeber, a cousin of the tide. William H. Smith was the best man, and he ushers were Walter D. Pollard and C. T. Torsert. A reception followed the ceremony, and torily after 10 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Brook started a weiding tour which will embrace an extended sit to the South. On their return they will make eit home on the Hill.

German society people in South Brooklyn turned out in force on Wednesday evening to attend the wedding of Miss Minnie Bohner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Bohner, and Philip Schildwachter, which took place at the home of the bride's par-ents, No. 319 President-st. The ceremony was per-formed by the Rev. William E. Main, pastor of St. Matthew's English Lutheran Church, in Seventh-st. Matthew's English Lutheran Church, in Seventh-st. The bride's only attendant was her sister, Miss Lou Bohner. The best mean was Frank Schildwachter, Bohner of the bridegroom, and the ushers were James H. Proctor and Edward Bohner, a brother of the bride. After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Schildwachter started on a tour, and will live in First Place on their return. which took place at the home of the bride's par-

The marriage of Gertrude Remick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Cheever Remick, and Philip Arthur Walford was celebrated at the home of the Arthur Walford was celebrated at the home of the bride's parents, No. 739 Putnam-ave., on Wednesday evening, the Rev. The bride was attended by Miss Blassina Lamadrid as maid of honor, and Miss Ciara Bedell and Master Eugene Remick were flower girl and page. The best man was Frenk V. Walford, a brother of the bridegroom, and the ushers were Randolph Foster and Robert Smith. Mr. and Mrs. Walford will make their home in Bainbridge-st. on their return from their wedding trip.

Another Bedford district wedding this week was that of Miss Carrie E. Boynton, daughter of the late William B. Boynton, and Frank Emory Wheeler, which was celebrated on Wednesday evening, at the home of the bride's mother, in Putnamave., the Rev. Alexander Lewis, of the New-England Consregational Church, officiating. The maid of honor was Miss Lottle May, the best man was Charles G. Wheeler, and the ushers were William Charles and Frank Abrens. A reception followed the ceremony, and many friends offered their congratulations.

Sarah Pearson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Pearson, was married to Charles Krug at the home of her parents in Macon-st., on Wednesday afternoon, by the Rev. A. F. Underhill, of the Church of the Good Snepherd. The best man was Edward Lilly, and the bride was unattended.

November promises a number of weddings of ashionable note. One of these is that of Miss de la Mesa and Mr. A. Curtin Fetterolf, whose engagement was announced last May. Miss de la Mesa has been active in society on the Hill for several seasons and has a large circle of warm friends and mirers as well as of acquaintenances, while Mr. Fetteroif, as a club man, is also well-known. The Setteroif, as a club man, is also well-known. The eremony is to be performed in the Cinton Avenue longregational Church, and Miss Banche Coe, hereif a bride-elect, will be maid of honor, while Miss leight a bride-elect, will be maid of honor, while Miss leight a bride-elect, will be maid of honor, while Miss leight and the bride-smalls leight and will be marriage of Miss Fannie Vermon and E. Miss Alice Lowell, of South Portland-ave., is now at home, having returned from abroad by the New-York, in company with the Headleys, of Newark, on Saturday, September 28. Miss Lowell spent the summer in Dinard, in Normandy, and was for a time the guest of her uncle, Edward Moffat, and his wife, who was Miss Graves.

Mr. and Mrs. James Fuller, of Grand-ave., have gone on a wheeling trip through Milford and the Delaware Water Gap.

Those who have assumed the responsibility of getting up in behalf of the Red Cross Society the Hallowe'en dance report progress. Mrs. J. Elliott Langstaff and Mrs. Timothy L. Woodruff are the chief conspirators this year, the latter instead of chief conspirators this year, the latter instead of Mrs. Charles H. Terry, who was Mrs. Langstaff's coadjutor last year. The patrons and patronesses of the affair are Mr. and Mrs. William A. Goodrich, Mr. and Mrs. Timothy L. Woodruff, Mr. and Mrs. George Betts, Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Affred Fraser, Mr. and Mrs. L. Mortimer Snyder, Dr. and Mrs. J. Blon Bogart, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Webster, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford L. The managers of the Diet Dispensary held a meeting on Monday to make arrangements for the Russtan festival at the Academy of Music on December sian restrict at the Academy of adole on December 11, 12 and 13. It has been decided to vary the char-acter of the entertainment by introducing a scen-from last year's Poly play "Cupid and Psyche," which will be enacted by Polytechnic boys. All the managers of the dispensary will be patronesses.

The abandonment of the Interclub bowling tournament after the date for the opening contest had been fixed was a surprise to a good many people who are interested in the game. The substitution for the league championship of a $200 challenge cup, for which a series of contests will be held, ves the assurance that the crack twirlers of the clubs will not be without their favorite sport this season, and that they will have something to play for. It is understood now that each club in the old league will be allowed to challenge for the cup twelve times during the bowling season, and it will become the property of the club winning it the larg-est number of times. N. B. Horle, ir., of the Union League; G. W. Hawkins, of the Hanover, and J. R. Beard, of the Oxford Club, have been appointed a committee to arrange the details of the contests.

The Irving Club has joined the Interclub Whist League, and as a preliminary canter challenged the Brooklyn Whist Club to a match, eight on a side, an act of great temerity on the part of so young a club. The match was played at the Irving Club last week, and the home team gained a great deal of information about whist and lost twenty-six

The Hanover, the representative club of the East End, is preparing for an active season. The first event to bring the members together will be a stag" during the present month, for which preparations are now being made, and this will be followed by a theatre party. The interior of the comfortable-looking clubhouse in Bedford-ave. has comfortable-looking clubhouse in Bedford-ave, has been repainted and decorated and partly refurnished during the summer, and presents a handsome appearance. Benjamin D. Bacon still occupies the chair of the Entertainment Committee, an office which he has filled with such complete satisfaction in seasons past. His aids on the committee are james A. Taylor, Frank Sperry H. R. S. Randolph, J. M. Moser, Julius De Long, J. G. Gulick, Charles W. Hubbell, George W. Hawkins, jr., and Richard S. White.

Kings County Asylum, and afterward to the Ter-Bartlett gave Delisie an opportunity to testify in his own behalf. He talked rationally, and explained away several incidents which upon their face looked like crazy freaks. Five doctors in the Kings County Asylum, he said, had examined him and pronounced him sound in every way.

Armond F. Delisle, a son of the patient, was called, and said that his motive is having his father committed to an asylum was merely to prevent him from wasting his money, which he showed a disposition to squander foolishly.

Judge Bartlett, in ruiling on the matter, said that he thought Mr. Delisle was probably a sick man, but that there was nothing in his speech or manner to indicate that he was insane. The matter was adjourned to Wednesday morning, and in the mean time Mr. Delisle will consult counsel.

Such a composition as was used when the brown-stone rear of the New-York City Hall was made to conform in appearance to the marble front, might be employed to advantage, if it is not too costly. Whatsver difference of opinion there might be re-garding the concealment of the brownstome on the historic old City Hall, there can be no voice raised in favor of preserving the unseemly brick outer walls in the Kings County Court House.

CITY EMPLOYES MUST COLLECT THEIR OWN PAT Controller Palmer has issued an order, to take effect on October 15, requiring all the employes of the city of Brooklyn to personally call at the Controlcity of Brooklyn to personally call at the Control-ler's office each month to draw their pay. There is considerable fault being found by the police with the new order. Heretofore the precinct captains have drawn the money for their precinct in bulk and distributed it at the stations. Under the new rule 1,709 men will have to appear personally at the City Hall on pay days. The employes of the Con-troller's office say that the business of the office can be better systematized by having the money go direct to the men who have earned it.
